

Logwise Rotterdam BV CONDITIONS

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1 Application of these standard conditions

These conditions shall apply to all legal relations between warehousing companies and their principals, even after the termination of the agreement, as far as the provisions of Chapter I hereof are concerned, and to the legal relation between warehousing companies and holders of receipts, as far as the provisions of Chapter II hereof are concerned, if the receipt states that these conditions - referred to by the name "Logwise Rotterdam Conditions" - are applicable.

To the agreement between the principal and the warehousing companies shall explicitly not apply any standard conditions to which the principal might refer in any manner or the principal might declare as applicable.

The principal nor the receipt holder may appeal to regulations or provisions if they are contrary to these conditions.

With regard to the activities and services as those of forwarding agents, shipping- agents/ shipbrokers, stevedores, carriers, insurance brokers, control companies, etc. performed by the warehousing company, the conditions customary in the relevant branch of trade, or the conditions whose application has been agreed, shall also apply.

Section 2 Definitions

In these conditions it is understood by:

- warehousing company: the party who - apart from the possibility of wider terms of reference - accepts orders for warehousing or custody or delivery of goods (Chapter I) or the party who has goods in custody against which a receipt issued by him is in circulation (Chapter II);
- principal: the party who instructs the warehousing company to store or deliver goods, or the person for whom the warehousing company stores goods for which no receipt is in circulation;
- receipt: a numbered and legally signed or stamped document entitled "receipt" or a synonym, stating that the holder has the right to receive the goods mentioned therein;
- receipt holder: the person who identifies himself to the warehousing company as holder of a receipt by producing the receipt or in any other manner acceptable to the warehousing company;

last receipt holder known to the

warehousing company: the person to whom a receipt has been issued and subsequently the receipt holder whose written request to the warehousing company to be considered as such bears the most recent date, provided however that the warehousing company shall have the right but not be obliged to regard someone else as such if they have reason to assume he is the last receipt holder.

Section 3 Applicable law- Disputes

All agreements between the warehousing company and the principal shall be subject to the laws of the Netherlands and if not otherwise specified in these conditions, the Civil Law provisions concerning the custody of goods, shall apply generally and according to circumstances.

All agreements between the storage company and the client are governed by Dutch law and insofar as these conditions are not otherwise meant, the provisions of civil law relating to custody apply in general and to circumstances.

All disputes that may arise between the storage company and its client or the holder of the storage certificate are submitted to the court.

A dispute is present when one of the parties declares that this is the case. The warehousing company is free to submit claims of due and payable sums of which the chargeability has not been disputed in writing by the other party within four weeks of the invoice date, to the court.

CHAPTER I

PROVISIONS RELATING TO PRESENTING, WAREHOUSING, CUSTODY AND DELIVERY

Section 4 Written records

All agreements, tenders, instructions regarding warehousing, custody, handling and delivery of goods, shall be recorded in writing.

Oral or telephone communications or arrangements shall only be binding on the warehousing company if immediately confirmed in writing, unless otherwise agreed.

Section 5 Description of goods and supply of information

Tender of goods and instructions on warehousing, custody and handling shall be effected or supplied giving an exact and full written description of the goods, such as inter alia their value, the number of packages, the gross weight and furthermore all particulars of such nature that the agreement would not have been made or not on the same terms and conditions if the warehousing company had been acquainted with the true state of affairs.

If goods are subject to customs and excise provisions or to tax regulations or other government rules, the principal shall promptly supply all information and documents required in this connection, in order to enable the warehousing company to comply with such provisions or regulations.

Section 6 Rates/payments/taxes

Current rates and payments for work and all oral or written agreements between the warehousing company and the principal regarding rates and payments for work shall be based on the cost of labour prevailing at the time the instructions were given or the agreement was made.

In case of an increase in the cost of labour, the current or the agreed rates and payments shall be adjusted accordingly with immediate effect. The warehousing company shall also have the right to adjust the rates in case the authorities introduce or increase charges imposed on the services rendered by the warehousing company.

Current and agreed rates for warehousing shall be based on the customary method of stacking the relevant goods, unless expressly agreed otherwise. If at the principal's request or in view of the condition of the goods the customary method of stacking is departed from, an increase in the rates shall be applied proportional to the additional floor space occupied compared to normal stacking.

Section 7 Duties, costs and taxes

All freight, reimbursements, taxes, duties, contributions, levies, fines and/or other charges or costs by whatever name, falling on or relating to the goods and payable on arrival or charged forward, shall be for account of the principal and shall be paid or reimbursed by the principal whether or not in advance, on the warehousing company's first demand, irrespective of whether such goods are not yet on the premises or have meanwhile been removed.

If the warehousing company thinks it necessary to conduct lawsuits or to take other legal steps with regard to taxes, duties, contributions, levies, fines and or other charges or costs by whatever name imposed by the authorities, or if the principal requests the warehousing company to conduct such lawsuits or take such legal steps and the warehousing company complies with such request, the resulting work and costs including the cost of legal and/or fiscal and/or other advice or assistance deemed necessary by the warehousing company, shall be for the principal's account and risk.

Before conducting lawsuits or taking legal measures in terms of this section, the warehousing company shall try to consult on the matter with, or to obtain instructions from the principal or the party directly concerned.

If the warehousing company acts or has acted as fiscal agent, all taxes, duties, contributions and other levies as well as fines, interest, costs, by whatever name, or indemnifications due and payable by the warehousing company, shall be for account of the principal, without prejudice to this section. The principal shall pay such amounts on the warehousing company's first demand.

Section 8 The principal's liability

The principal shall be liable towards the warehousing company and/or third parties for any loss or damage resulting from incorrect and/or misleading and/or incomplete descriptions or indications or information, as well as for loss or damage resulting from defects of the goods and/or the packing not reported beforehand, even if such loss or damage was caused through no fault of his. If no weight is stated or stated incorrectly, the principal shall be liable for any resulting loss or damage.

The principal shall be liable for any damage resulting from not, not timely or not properly meeting any of his obligations under these conditions, or under a separate agreement between the warehousing company and the principal, if no provisions are already included herein.

Notwithstanding the above provisions the principal shall indemnify the warehousing company against claims from third parties or compensate the warehousing company for damages paid or due by third parties or paid or due to third parties, including the employees of both the warehousing company and the principal, relating to the nature or condition of the goods stored.

Section 9 Refusing an order

The warehousing company shall have the right to refuse an order for warehousing and/or custody without giving reasons therefor. If the warehousing company has accepted the order, the agreement may only be broken by mutual consent of the two parties.

Section 10 Inspection of goods

The warehousing company shall not be obliged to weigh or measure the goods stored without instructions there to.

It is in the warehousing company's discretion to weigh and measure the goods in order to verify the specifications received. If in such case the warehousing company ascertains that weights or measures differ from the specification, the cost of weighing and/or measuring shall be for the principal's account. However, the warehousing company shall only be responsible for ascertaining weights and/or measures, if the goods have been weighed and/or measured by the warehousing company on the principal's instructions and without prejudice to the provisions of section 17 on the warehousing company's liability.

Packages may only be opened for inspecting their contents at the principal's request, but the warehousing company shall at all times have the right, but not be obliged, thereto if they suspect that the contents have been described incorrectly.

If on inspection it appears that the contents differ from the specification, the cost of inspection shall be for the principal's account. However, the warehousing company shall never be responsible for the description and/or designation of goods taken into custody.

Section 11 Presenting/delivery and receipt

Presenting to and receipt by the warehousing company shall be made by the principal's presenting the goods and their acceptance by the warehousing company at the place of warehousing.

Delivery to and receipt by the principal shall be made by the warehousing company's delivery of the goods and their acceptance by the principal at the place of warehousing.

Section 12 Condition of the goods on arrival

Unless otherwise stated, goods shall be delivered to the warehousing company in good condition and if packed, properly packed.

If the goods sent to the warehousing company arrive in apparent damaged or defective condition, the warehousing company shall have the right, but not be obliged, to protect the principal's interests against the carrier or others for the principal's account and risk, and to provide evidence of such condition, however, without the principal being able to derive any right against the warehousing company from the manner in which the warehousing company have performed such work. The warehousing company shall notify the principal instantly, without the latter having any right of claim against the warehousing company because of failure to notify.

Goods received for warehousing, which a conscientious warehousing company, had it known they might be dangerous after receipt, would not have accepted for warehousing in view of this, may at any moment be removed or destroyed or rendered harmless in another manner by them.

With regard to the warehousing of goods of which the warehousing company knew their danger, the same shall apply, but only when such goods present an immediately imminent danger.

The warehousing company shall not owe any indemnification in such matter and the principal shall be liable for all costs and damages to the warehousing company resulting from the presentation for warehousing, from the warehousing itself or from the measures taken, unless such costs and damages or the need for taking such measures are exclusively due to faults on the part of the warehousing company.

As a result of the measures taken the agreement on the goods stated therein shall cease, but if such goods are delivered as yet, only after their delivery.

Section 13 Commencement of execution of order for warehousing

Unless agreed otherwise or prevented by special circumstances, the warehousing company shall as soon as possible after accepting the order and on receipt of the required documents, particulars and handling instructions, commence the execution of accepted orders for warehousing or delivery of goods.

Section 14 Late or irregular delivery or removal

If the principal has advised the warehousing company that goods are to be presented for warehousing in a particular quantity and/or at a specified time, or that goods to be removed are to be collected in a particular quantity and/or at a specified time, and if in such case the principal fails to present or collect in time and regularly, the principal shall be obliged to pay the costs resulting for the warehousing company, because workers and equipment ordered and/or assigned by the warehousing company for executing the relevant order are not or not fully employed.

Section 15 Working hours

Presenting goods to and removal of goods from the place of warehousing shall be made during the official working hours of the warehousing company's staff. If the principal desires work to be done outside the official working hours, it is in the warehousing company's discretion to comply or not. Extra costs incurred for working outside the official working hours, shall be borne by the principal.

Section 16 Place of warehousing, transfer of goods

Unless otherwise agreed, it shall be in the warehousing company's discretion where the goods are to be stored.

The warehousing company shall at all times have the right to transfer the goods to another place of warehousing.

The cost of such transfer shall be for the warehousing company's account, unless such transfer is to be made:

in the interest of the principal or the goods, or due to circumstances for which the warehousing company is not responsible, or due to circumstances that cannot reasonably be for the warehousing company's account and risk, or due to government rules and regulations.

The transport related to the transfer for the warehousing company's account, shall take place on the customary transport conditions.

The transport related to the transfer for the principal's account, shall be undertaken by the warehousing company as forwarding agent and shall be made at the principal's risk.

If the goods are transferred to another place of warehousing, the warehousing company shall notify the principal, without the latter being able to make any claim against the warehousing company for failing to notify.

Section 17 Damage/loss of goods

Under the present warehousing conditions the principal renounces any right of recovery against third parties in case of damage and/or loss; he shall exclusively be able to hold the warehousing company liable, even if the warehousing company has employed the services of third parties in the course of their business, all of which with the following limitation.

All activities and work shall be performed for the principal's account and risk, unless provided otherwise herein.

The warehousing company shall not be liable for any damage, unless the principal proves that the damage was caused by faults or negligence of the warehousing company or its staff.

In case of damage and/or loss because of theft by means of burglary, the warehousing company shall be considered to have applied adequate care, if it has provided proper closure of the place of warehousing.

In the case of goods stored on open grounds or which can only be stored on open grounds or of which it is customary for the warehousing company to store them on open grounds, any liability of the warehousing company for damage that may be related to such warehousing, shall be excluded.

The warehousing company's liability in all cases shall be limited to 2 SDRs per kilogram damaged or lost gross weight with a maximum of 100,000 SDRs per event or series of events with the same cause of damage.

The damage to be compensated by the warehousing company shall never exceed the invoice value of the goods, to be proved by the principal, in the absence of which their market value, to be proved by the principal, at the time the damage was done, shall apply. The warehousing company shall only be liable for damage to the goods themselves and for damage in terms of section 17 and shall never be liable for lost profits, consequential damage and immaterial damage.

In case of damage to an independent part of the goods, or in case of damage to one or more parts of several goods belonging together, any depreciation of the remaining parts or the undamaged goods shall not be considered.

The warehousing company's liability for damage resulting from complying with (customs) formalities shall be limited to 7500 SDRs per event or series of events with one and the same cause of damage.

Section 18 Admittance to the premises

The warehousing company shall be obliged to admit the principal and the persons designated by him, for the principal's account and risk, to the place where his goods are stored, subject to the compliance with the customs and other formalities prescribed by the authorities.

To the persons to whom the warehousing company grants admittance the following conditions shall apply:

- a. all persons visiting the place of warehousing including the crew of vessels and vehicles arriving at the place of warehousing, shall observe the warehousing company's regulations;
- b. admittance shall be granted only during regular working hours and under escort;
- c. the cost of escorting visitors shall be paid to the warehousing company by the principal;
- d. the principal shall be liable for any damage caused directly or indirectly by the visitors.

The principal shall indemnify the warehousing company against third party claims, including both the warehousing company's and the principal's employees, relating to damage resulting from the preceding subsections.

Section 19 Performance of activities

The performance of the work required by the principal, such as sampling, handling, servicing, repacking, restacking, lotting, weighing, etc., as well as delivery, shall be entrusted to the warehousing company having the goods in custody, at the appropriate fees and on the appropriate conditions.

Any work the warehousing company does not wish to undertake may, with the warehousing company's consent, be executed by or on behalf of the principal, subject to the conditions made by the warehousing company, under the supervision of the warehousing company and against payment of the costs involved, however without any liability of the warehousing company.

Section 20 Special method of handling goods

The warehousing company shall not be obliged to take any measures in respect of the goods received into custody or their packing, than such measures as are considered normal for the custody of the goods concerned.

The warehousing company shall only be obliged to take special measures if they have been agreed.

However, the warehousing company shall have the right to take immediate action at the principal's cost and risk, including the clearance or removal or destruction or rendering harmless in any other manner, if it is feared that failure to take such action may cause loss and/or damage to the goods themselves or to other goods, or to the warehousing or to equipment, or injury to persons, or when measures are required or indicated for some other reason, such in the warehousing company's discretion. The warehousing company shall immediately inform the principal of the measures taken, without the latter having any right of claim against the warehousing company because of failure to meet such obligation.

Without prejudice to the provisions of the preceding subsection, the principal shall indemnify the warehousing company against any third party claims for damage caused by the principal's goods to goods pertaining to third parties.

Section 21 Insurance of goods

Unless expressly agreed with the principal in writing the warehousing company shall not be obliged to effect any insurance for goods.

If it has been agreed between the warehousing company and the principal that the warehousing company is to effect insurance of the goods for the principal's account, the warehousing company shall have the right in their discretion to effect the agreed insurance in the principal's name, or to include such insurance in a warehouse policy.

The value to be insured shall be the amount stated by the principal. The warehousing company shall in all cases of insurance exclusively be regarded as intermediary without any liability, nor for the terms and conditions agreed with the insurer(s) or for their reliability or their solvency.

In all cases where the goods have been insured through the intermediary of the warehousing company, the warehousing company shall have the right to collect the amounts claimed for and on behalf of the parties interested in the goods and to recover therefrom all their claims, for whatever reason, on the principal. The balance shall be paid to the principal.

If in case of damage to or loss of goods by fire or by any other cause, the assistance of the warehousing company for assessing the damage or loss is desirable or necessary, such assistance shall be rendered by the warehousing company against payment of the costs involved and of a fee for their efforts. The warehousing company may make such assistance contingent on the cash payment of, or the provision of security for all amounts owing to the warehousing company by the principal for whatever reason and the costs and fee referred to in this subsection.

In case of partial delivery of the goods by the warehousing company, the principal shall inform the warehousing company for what amount he wishes to have the remaining goods insured.

In the absence of such information the warehousing company shall have the right to reduce the insured amount in their own discretion in the same proportion as the decrease in the number, weight, measure or contents of the goods.

Section 22 Charging warehouse rent in case of destruction of goods

In case the goods stored with the warehousing company are destroyed by fire or otherwise, the day of destruction shall count as the date of delivery and the warehouse rent plus - if the goods were insured through the warehousing company - insurance premium and costs calculated in full monthly periods, shall be due and payable up to and including such date.

Section 23 Removal of goods

The principal may, upon payment of all amounts due to the warehousing company (in the widest sense) and subject to the provisions hereof, at any time remove the goods placed in custody.

The warehouse rent - and if the goods were insured through the warehousing company, the insurance premiums and costs - shall always be charged in full months, part of a month counting as a full month.

If a fixed period of warehousing has been agreed, the warehousing company cannot require the principal to remove the goods prior to the expiration of the agreed period of time.

If no period of warehousing has been agreed or if the agreed period of warehousing has expired, the warehousing company may require the removal at one month's notice, however not within three months of the commencement of warehousing.

In case of force majeure the agreement shall remain in force; however, the warehousing company's obligations shall be suspended for the duration of the force majeure. All extra costs caused by force majeure shall be for the principal's account. Force majeure shall be all circumstances the warehousing company has reasonably been unable to avoid and whose consequences the warehousing company has reasonably been unable to prevent.

Section 24 Premature removal of goods for urgent reasons

However, the warehousing company shall at all times have the right to require the removal of the goods received for warehousing prior to the expiration of the warehouse period without observing any period of notice, if there is an urgent reason therefor.

Urgent reason shall be understood to be a circumstance of such nature that according to rules of reasonableness and fairness the principal cannot expect the warehousing to be maintained.

Such reason shall be deemed to exist inter alia if the principal fails to comply with one or more other provisions hereof, or if it appears that owing to the presence of the goods the hazard of loss and/or damage to other goods or the warehouse place or to equipment, or injury to persons is to be feared, and furthermore if the goods are perishable or liable to inherent changes which in the warehousing company's opinion justify the assumption of deterioration and the principal has neglected to give instructions for preventing or controlling it.

The principal shall remain under obligation to pay the warehouse rent up to the day of removal of the goods.

Section 25 Payment

All amounts owing to the warehousing company by the principal for whatever reason, such as: warehouse rent, insurance premiums and costs, rent, disbursements, fees for warehousing and delivery, outlays and charges for work done or to be done, cost of cleaning work and such like during or after a fire or otherwise, extraordinary expenses, extra wages, taxes, duties, levies, fines, interest etc., shall be immediately due and payable.
If the warehousing company applies a term of payment, the said amounts shall be immediately due and payable on expiry of the term of payment.

Without prejudice to the provisions of the preceding subsection the principal shall always pay the warehouse rent due promptly within the term agreed between the parties, but at least once in 12 months.

If the principal does not immediately pay the amounts due to the warehousing company, the warehousing company shall have the right to charge the legal interest.

Payments on account shall be regarded to have been made in the first place in reduction of ordinary debts, regardless of whether other instructions were given on payment.

If in case of overdue payment the debt is collected by judicial or other action, the amount of the debt shall be increased by 15% administrative costs, while the judicial and extrajudicial costs shall be for the principal's account, up to the amount paid or due by the warehousing company.

Section 26 Lien and right of retention

The warehousing company shall have a lien and a right of retention towards anyone requesting delivery thereof, on all goods, documents and monies the warehousing company holds or will hold for whatever reason and for whatever purpose, for all claims it has or may have in future on the principal and/or owner.

The warehousing company may also exercise the rights awarded to it in section 26 for all amounts the principal still owes the warehousing company in connection with earlier orders.

The warehousing company shall regard anyone who, on behalf of the principal entrusts goods to him for performing work, as the principal's agent for creating a lien and a right of retention on such goods.

In case of non-payment of the claim, the sale of the security shall take place in the manner prescribed by law, or - if there is consensus thereon - privately.

Section 27 Public sale

Without prejudice to the provisions of section 26 hereof, the warehousing company shall have the right to sell the goods entrusted to the warehousing company, or to have them sold, without observing any formality, in the place and in the manner and on the conditions the warehousing company may see fit, publicly or in any other manner the law may permit, at the expense of the principal and to recover from the proceeds all amounts the principal owes the warehousing company, in case the principal fails to remove the goods entrusted to the warehousing company on expiry of the agreement or at the agreed or specified time or at any other point of time in case of one of the urgent reasons mentioned in section 24 hereof.

If it is probable that in case of sale the cost will be higher than the benefits or if no buyer is found despite a reasonable attempt thereto, the warehousing company shall have the right to remove the goods, to have them removed or to destroy them. The principal shall then remain liable for the amounts due, increased by the cost of removal or destruction.

In case of sale the warehousing company shall hold the balance of the proceeds after deducting all costs and all the principal's debts, at the principal's disposal for five years, after which period the balance, if not claimed, shall accrue to the warehousing company.

Section 28 Prescription and extinction

Every claim shall become prescribed by the simple lapse of 12 months.

All claims against the warehousing company shall become extinct by the simple lapse of 2 years.

In case of total loss, damage or reduction, the periods mentioned in sections 28 shall commence on the first of the following days:

the day the warehousing company delivered or should have delivered the goods;
the day the warehousing company informed the principal of such event.

In case the warehousing company is held liable by third parties, including any government, the period mentioned in section 28 shall commence on the first of the following days:

- the day the warehousing is held liable by the third party, or
- the day the warehousing company paid the claim against it.

Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 28 the periods mentioned for all other claims shall commence on the day they become due and payable.

Section 29 Complaints

If the goods are made available by the warehousing company without the principal or someone else for him having established their condition in the presence of the warehousing company or without having informed the warehousing company of reserves, in case of visible loss or damage not later than the moment the goods were made available, or in case of invisible loss or damage within five working days of the availability, indicating the general nature of the loss or damage, he shall be considered to have received the goods in good condition, unless the contrary is proved. In case of invisible loss or damage, the said reserves shall be made in writing.

The day the goods are made available shall not be counted in the determination of the above periods.

Section 30 Transfer or transition of goods

Transfer or transition of ownership of stored goods, or the transfer or transition of the right to delivery thereof by a principal to a third party, shall be ineffectual against the warehousing company and without legal effect for the warehousing company, nor shall the warehousing company recognize such transfer or transition, unless all claims the warehousing company may have on the original and/or transferring principal for whatever reason, have been fully paid.

The principal shall be obliged to inform the warehousing company instantly in writing of any transfer or transition of ownership of goods, or transfer or transition of the right to delivery of goods.

Notwithstanding the provisions above the transfer or transition shall have no legal effect for the warehousing company, nor shall the warehousing company recognize them, unless the new owner(s) has(have) explicitly accepted in writing all provisions of the agreement between the warehousing company and the original and/or transferring principal as well as the present conditions.

The warehousing company shall not be required to recognize the transfer or transition of ownership or the right to delivery of the goods and shall even have the right to revoke a recognition made, and they may refuse to deliver the goods, if in the warehousing company's opinion there are flaws in the legal title regarding any transfer or transition of ownership of goods, or any transfer or transition of the right to delivery of goods, and if the new owner(s) claim(s) not to have accepted the present conditions or not to be committed thereto.

The original and/or transferring principal shall remain liable to the warehousing company for all the warehousing company's claims for or in connection with the warehousing and/or work performed in connection with such goods, even though they were performed after the transfer or transition of ownership, or after transfer or transition of the right to delivery.

After transfer or transition of ownership, or the right to delivery of the goods, the new owner shall be regarded as the principal and shall, in addition to his legal predecessor, be severally liable for all the above claims, even though they may have arisen prior to the transfer or transition.

Section 31 Issue of receipts

The warehousing company may issue to the principal at his request a receipt, describing the goods given into custody to the warehousing company by the principal.

The warehousing company shall have the right to refuse to issue a receipt, if the principal has not paid all claims the warehousing company may have on him for whatever reason.

The warehousing company may furthermore refuse to issue a receipt if they believe there are reasons therefor.

On the issue of a bearer receipt all the warehousing company's obligations towards the principal shall cease and shall be replaced by the warehousing company's obligations towards the receipt holder, which is regulated in more detail in Chapter II hereof. The principal shall, even after the issue of the receipt, remain liable towards to warehousing company for the effects of any discrepancy between the goods for which the receipt was issued and their description in the receipt.

CHAPTER II

PROVISIONS REGARDING THE RECEIPT

Section 32 Applicable provisions

The legal relations between warehousing companies and receipt holders shall also be subject to the provisions of Chapter I, unless the provisions of Chapter II require that a provision of Chapter I may not be applied.

Section 33 Right to delivery of goods

The receipt awards a right to delivery by the warehousing company of the goods they have received for warehousing and against which the receipt has been issued. For any discrepancy between the stored goods and their description in the receipt, the warehousing company shall be liable towards the receipt holder who was unaware of the existence of the discrepancy when acquiring the receipt, unless it concerns goods whose identification requires expert knowledge and/or a thorough examination or analysis.

If the receipt contains the clause:

"Contents, quality, number, weight or measure unknown" or a similar clause, the warehousing company shall not be bound by any statement in the receipt regarding the contents, the quality and the number, the weight or the measure of the goods.

The right to delivery shall not exist as long as the warehousing company can lay any claim on the goods under the present conditions and until all customs and other formalities prescribed by the authorities and required for the delivery, have been fulfilled.

Section 34 Expiry of the receipt

The receipt shall be valid for three years, as from the date of issue, unless a shorter period of validity is stated in the receipt.

Until its expiry the receipt may be replaced at the receipt holder's request by a new receipt, against payment of the costs involved. The warehousing company shall have the right to refuse to replace the receipt and to require the removal of the goods on the expiry date.

If on its expiry date the receipt has not been presented for replacement, or if after refusal to replace the receipt the goods have not been removed from the warehousing company on the expiry date, the holder of the expired receipt shall be considered to agree to the warehouse rent - and if the goods have been insured through the warehousing company, the insurance premium and costs - as shall be determined by the warehousing company as from such date.

If on its expiry date the receipt has not been presented for replacement, or if after refusal to replace the receipt the goods have not been removed from the warehousing company on the expiry date against payment of the amount the warehousing company is entitled to under section 34 hereof, the warehousing company shall have the right to dispose of the goods to which the expired receipt refers, subject to the relevant provisions hereof.

For a period of five years after the expiry date of the receipt the warehousing company shall be obliged to deliver the goods to which the expired receipt refers - or if the warehousing company has exercised its right to dispose of the goods, the net proceeds of the goods, without payment of interest - to the holder of the expired receipt, after deducting all amounts due to the warehousing company. On expiry of these five years the rights of the holder of the expired receipt shall cease and the warehousing company shall no longer be required to deliver the goods - or to account for their proceeds - neither to the holder of the expired receipt, nor to others.

Section 35 Delivery of goods after payment

The warehousing company shall, prior to effecting full or partial delivery of the goods to which the receipt gives title, have the right to demand payment of:

- a. warehouse rent for so many months as appears from the receipt to have elapsed, and have not been noted therein as having been paid prior to delivery, at the monthly rent stated in the receipt, parts of months to be counted as full months;
- b. insurance premiums and costs for so many months as appears from the receipt to have elapsed, and have not been noted therein as having been paid prior to delivery, at the monthly insurance premium stated in the receipt, parts of months to be counted as full months;
- c. the charges for delivering the goods at the current rate therefor;
- d. disbursements made by the warehousing company on behalf of the receipt holder requesting delivery, in connection with customs and/or other formalities prescribed by the authorities in respect of the goods described in the receipt;
- e. all costs incurred by the warehousing company after the date of issue mentioned in the receipt:
 - e.1. for preserving the goods mentioned in the receipt;
 - e.2. for eliminating any dangers caused by the goods mentioned in the receipt to the place of warehouse and to other goods stored therein;
 - e.3. for measures taken in respect of the goods mentioned in the receipt as a result of circumstances for which the warehousing company cannot be held responsible.
- f. all other amounts due to the warehousing company apparent from the receipt.

Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding subsection the receipt holder shall be obliged to pay the warehouse rent due - and if the goods have been insured through the warehousing company, the insurance premium and costs - at the end of each 12 months of warehousing or so much earlier as has been agreed and stated in the receipt plus the costs incurred by the warehousing company referred to in paragraphs

- d. and e. above, as soon as the warehousing company has informed him of such costs.

If the receipt holder fails to meet his obligation to pay the rent after each 12 monthly period or so much earlier as has been agreed and stated in the receipt - and if the goods have been insured through the warehousing company, the insurance premium and costs - the amounts due to the warehousing company for this reason shall be increased, as from the day the 12 months warehousing elapsed, by a penalty of 1% of the amount due for each month in excess of the 12 month period.

Section 36 Indemnification

Contrary to the provisions of section 17 the indemnification to be paid by the warehousing company for loss of goods shall, in the absence of the invoice value of the goods, be limited to the market value of the goods on the day of issue of the receipt, to be proved by the principal.

Section 37 Access to and information about goods

Access to and information about goods for which receipts have been issued shall only be given on production of the relevant receipt.

Section 38 Activities in connection with the goods

The activities required by the receipt holder in relation to the goods described in the receipt, such as sampling, handling, servicing, repacking, restacking, lotting, weighing, etc., as well as delivery, shall be entrusted to the warehousing company having the goods in custody, against the appropriate fees and on the appropriate conditions.

The activities required by the receipt holder shall only be carried out after surrender of the receipt.

Activities the warehousing company does not wish to undertake may, with the warehousing company's consent and after surrender of the receipt, be performed by or on behalf of the receipt holder, subject to conditions made by the warehousing company, under the supervision of the warehousing company and against payment of the costs involved, however without any responsibility of the warehousing company.

Partial deliveries, sampling and handling of the goods causing a modification, decrease or change in the number of the goods shall be noted on the receipt in the proper place. If there is no space left on the receipt for further noting deliveries, modifications, decreases, etc., the receipt shall be replaced at the receipt holder's expense.

Payments due to the warehousing company for work performed in connection with the goods described in the receipt or for supervising such work, shall be paid immediately. The warehousing company shall have the right to refuse to return the receipt until such payments have been made.

Section 39 Notification of special method of handling

If the warehousing company decides to take a measure in terms of section 20, the warehousing company shall immediately notify the receipt holder last known to it, without the receipt holder having any right of claim against the warehousing company for omitting such notification.

Section 40 The warehousing company's obligation to insure

If the receipt shows that the goods therein are insured, the warehousing company shall thereby have undertaken the obligation to effect insurance for the receipt holder's account in accordance with the provisions of section 21.

The insured value shall be the value stated in the receipt.

If the receipt states that the insured value is the current market value, it shall be the warehousing company's responsibility to keep the goods adequately insured.

Section 41 Changes in, effect and termination of insurance

Any changes in the insured value and termination of insurance shall only be possible when the receipt is surrendered for being endorsed accordingly.

Only the insurance as stated in the receipt shall be effective.

The insurance shall otherwise cease on delivery of the goods.

On delivery of part of the goods the insured value of the goods to be delivered must be stated separately and endorsed on the receipt, if the receipt does not show the insured value per unit and if a proportionate decrease cannot be inferred from the receipt.

Section 42 Amounts of claims

The amounts of claims collected by the warehousing company shall be paid out by the warehousing company against surrender of the receipt, after deducting all amounts due to the warehousing company by the receipt holder.

Section 43 Notification of destruction of goods

In case of destruction of the goods described in the receipt by fire or otherwise, the warehousing company shall immediately notify the receipt holder last known to them, without the receipt holder having any right of claim against the warehousing company for omitting such notification.

Section 44 Mutilation of the receipt

Any erasures and mutilations shall render the receipt void; deletions shall not be valid unless initialled by the warehousing company.

The holder of a mutilated receipt may request the issue of a duplicate, against surrender of the original receipt and on payment of the costs involved. For determining the nature and quantity of the goods to be shown in the duplicate receipt, the warehousing company's relevant records shall exclusively be regarded as standard.

Section 45 Loss and destruction of receipts

If a receipt has been lost or destroyed, the rightful holder may apply to the warehousing company for nullification of such receipt and request delivery of the goods or the issue of a duplicate receipt; such application must, if possible, state the cause for the loss of the receipt and contain the grounds on which the applicant bases his title.

If investigations made by the warehousing company afford no reasons to doubt the truth of the grounds of the application, the warehousing company shall publish the application made by inserting two announcements, at intervals of at least 14 days each time, in at least two daily newspapers designated by the warehousing company, inviting those who believe they have a title to the goods described in the missing receipt, to oppose their delivery or the issue of the duplicate receipt by service of a writ.

If within 14 days of the last announcement no one has opposed the delivery or issue by service of a writ, the warehousing company may nullify the receipt and effect delivery of goods or issue a duplicate receipt to the applicant. For determining the nature and quantity of the goods to be delivered or to be described in the duplicate receipt, the warehousing company's relevant records shall exclusively be regarded as standard. The nullification may immediately thereafter be published in the said newspapers. As a result of such nullification the original receipt shall lose its validity and all the warehousing company's obligations under the original receipt shall cease.

In case of opposition by a third party the application shall not be complied with, until it has appeared from a Court Order or other final and conclusive ruling or award that the applicant is the person entitled to the goods.

The person obtaining delivery of the goods described in a duplicate receipt, shall indemnify the warehousing company against all claims resulting from such delivery. The warehousing company may require security for this purpose.

Any costs in the widest sense, incurred by the warehousing company as a result of the application, shall be borne by the applicant. The warehousing company shall have the right to require an advance of money to be made before considering the application.

Section 46 Expiration of the validity of the receipt

If on expiry of the validity of the receipt the warehousing company no longer wishes to keep the goods in warehousing, they shall summon the last known receipt holder to remove the goods.

If the receipt holder fails to comply with the summons within 14 days, or if he is no longer in possession of the expired receipt, and does not indicate the holder of the expired receipt within 14 days, nor does the holder of the expired receipt present himself within such period, the warehousing company shall have the right to sell the goods covered by the expired receipt.

Prior to taking such action, the warehousing company shall publish its intention to sell goods for which an expired receipt is in circulation by inserting two announcements at intervals of at least 14 days in at least two daily newspapers each time, at least one of which appearing in the place where the warehousing company has its registered office, requesting the holder of the expired receipt to meet his obligations as yet, or notifying any persons having acquired the expired receipt.

If 14 days after the last announcement the receipt holder has not presented himself, or if he has presented himself but no agreement has been reached on the removal of the goods, the warehousing company shall be at liberty to sell the goods immediately.

The sale shall take place in accordance with the provisions of section 27.

Section 47 Commencement of period of extinction

The period of prescription and extinction as referred to in section 28 shall, in case of total loss, commence at the end of the day on which the warehousing company informs the last known receipt holder of such loss or if he is no longer in possession of the receipt and no subsequent receipt holder has presented himself to the warehousing company, a week after the announcement of such loss in two daily newspapers, at least one of which appearing in the place where the warehousing company have their registered office.

Section 49 Application of the provisions of this chapter

The provisions of this Chapter II shall exclusively apply to the legal relationship between the warehousing company and the receipt holder as such.

The moment the receipt holder for whatever reason surrenders the receipt to the warehousing company the provisions of the present Chapter II shall cease to apply. As from such moment the provisions of Chapter I, regulating the legal relationship between the warehousing company and the principal, shall apply provided always that the warehousing company may enforce all their rights under the receipt.
